Thursday, June 15, 2006

5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Milpitas City Hall
Community Meeting Room
455 East Calaveras Boulevard
Milpitas, CA

This FREE workshop will focus on how to do business with the City.

The purpose of this workshop is to introduce potential City vendors to the types of services used by the City and the process for being considered for potential selection as a City Vendor. A sampling of contracted City uses included janitorial and painting services, curb & sidewalk repair, fencing, all sorts of small and large construction jobs and many different type of professional service consultants such as engineers, architects and auditors.

The City's Purchasing Agent, Christopher Schroeder, will present information on how to be competitive for City contracts. Purchasing and Economic Development staff will also be available to answer questions.

Persons interested in knowing more about "Doing Business With Milpitas" should sign up for this event by calling (408) 586-3166. Seating is limited to 50 attendees."

Workshop Partners: The City of Milpitas, the Milpitas Chamber of Commerce, the Silicon Valley Small Business Development Center and NOVA @ Connect! Business Services.
